Big City Culture / Me & My City

Deadline for responses to be entered into a prize draw to win an ipod nano - Friday 4th December

(winners announced Monday 25th January)

We want Birmingham to be City of Culture for 2013. Please help us to create the vision!

Name: Male/Female: Age: Postcode: School / FE / Organisation:

People from Brum - interesting / exciting / famous people from Brum:

Places in Brum - good places to go, see, do:

Things to be proud of in Brum - what other things should we be proud of and celebrate?

Things I'll always remember - exciting cultural experiences you have seen or been involved with:

King or Queen for the day - what would you do in your street, local area, park and City? Who would be involved?

Festivals - If there was a huge City festival what would be happening, how would you be involved and who else?

Something big - What would you create to symbolise Brum, where would it be, how would you be involved?

Cultural heroes - Who would you like to see supporting our City's celebrations (artists, cultural figures, etc)?

You and your City - would you like to have opportunities to be a:

Creator □ Audience member □ Participant □ Leader □
Tell us more:

Things that should be in place - what would encourage you to be involved?

Something missing? If there anything else you would like to see happen, let us know

Staying in touch - let us know how we can stay in touch (email, address, phone number, etc):

Finally - We are really committed to ensuring all voices are represented within the vision. Please help us to ensure we are doing this by filling out this short monitoring form. Thank you!

For further info and to return questionnaire, contact: ruth.richardson@birmingham.gov.uk / 0121 675 5414 / Birmingham City Council Arts and Young People Team, Birmingham Museum and Art Gallery, Chamberlain Square, Birmingham, B3 3DH

P.S. Online activity coming soon! Look out for developments in partnership with Fierce.